AWAY back in the alfalfa fields around Farmington there dwells an ancient ball player known to the fans far and near as Rip Van Winkle Weaver. He is said to have been a master at the game in days far beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and from his earliest childhood used to go out among the savage tribes that then inhabited this valley and teach the noble red man the game now being practiced by the later generations.

In his youth it is said this ancient ball player while away the time throwing pebbles at the festive coyotes and sportive jack rabbits that swarmed in large numbers in the sagebrush, and while following this favorite amusement, learned a number of shots and slants which he stored up for future use.

Being a backward sort of a man, Rip Van Winkle Weaver never confided his ability in this line, being content to await the time he could put one known edge into some use. As a result none of his friends ever accused him of being a baseball pitcher, and it remained for a certain individual known hereabouts as Big Chief Borchers (no relation to the savage tribes of Rip Van Winkle Weaver's boyhood days) to discover the fact.

Yesterday Weaver and his crowd of farmer lads invaded the city and, for nine innings, this ancient mariner handed out a choice selection of long-forgotten curves that completely mystified the big chief's Indians.

Wonders How It Happened.

The large number of fans who visited the park yesterday are still wondering how it happened. Starkie, the new pitcher for the Lagoons, failed to arrive yesterday, and after sizing up the White Wings, Buck Weaver came to the conclusion that he could do the trick himself, and went in for a total of ten hits, he kept them well scattered and won his game. Only one man received a free ticket to first.

Father Kelly was on the mound for the Wings, and was hammered all over the diamond. The usually steady Kelly was a little off, and was touched up for eighteen hits. Everybody took a hand at hitting him except Hader, Plake did the worst execution, going to the bat five times, getting four safe hits and scoring four runs.

Salt Lake did better work in the field, making four errors against the Farmers' seven, but the game was lost on account of the inability of the White Wings to hit Weaver at critical times. Lagoon's poor work in the field gave Salt Lake two runs in the first inning, and then the Farmers settled down to business, and did not let another angel cross the plate until the sixth, when a hit by Kimerer and an error by Eubanks scored the greatest number of them all, on Adams' safe hit to right field.

Adams Again Scores Kimerer.

In the eighth, "Kim" again scored on a two-bagger by the new Salt Lake catcher, and Adams himself scored on Margetts' hit to left field. Gintere Brockhoff led off with a three-bagger in the ninth, and was scored by Huston's two-bagger. Huston stole third and came in on Schills' long fly to Bradley. Huston's wild throw let Briseno get to first in the start off for the Lagoons. He reached third on Weaver's safety, and scored on Brockhoff's failure to stop Plake's grounder. A minute later Husky King sent a two-bagger down past third, scoring both Weaver and Plake.

In the third the Lagoons scored two more on hits by McCausland, Plake and Eubanks, and King's lofty fly to Ellis. In the fifth Huston went up for a few minutes, and when Father Kelly again became settled four Farmers had crossed the home plate. Singles by McCausland, King, Eubanks and Lempeke and a two-bagger by Plake, together with Adams' error in letting Kimerer's long throw home get past him, did the work.

Plake's two-bagger in the eighth netted him a run on King's drive past second. Margetts' fielding was again a feature of the game. He doubled Briseno out on first by a quick throw, and caught Bradley trying to get home by a long drive. Adams, the new catcher, made his first appearance on the diamond yesterday. He got two hits out of five times at the bat, and fielded his position well.

OGDEN, 9; LOGAN, 2.

Quick, Logan's New Pitcher, Was in the Box.

(Special to The Herald.)
Ogden, June 7.—A took no twelve innings today to decide the game between the Lobsters and the Infants. The matter was attended to during the first four innings, after which Ogden failed to score. Logans got their two in the sixth. Pace out the second hit secured from Thomas up to this stage of the game; Glade followed with a hot grounder over second, which Berry fumbled, but which Logan claimed should be ticketed as a hit. Hartzell sent a two-bagger to Gimlin, which scored Pace and Glade. Logan had quick, their new pitcher, in the box, but the Lobsters found him frequently in the first four innings, after which they failed to connect. Interest in the game was lacking owing to its one-sidedness, and there were no sensational plays except a lightning stop by Thomas, who officiated on the slab for Ogden. Hader made a good record in right, pulling in four hard chances. The two teams will finish their seventh consecutive game tomorrow afternoon at Glenwood park.

Rosebuds for Luck.

Anyone who might have happened to be at the Lagoon depot Friday night when Weaver's bunch of ball tossers arrived in town, perhaps noticed that each member of the team wore a pretty red rosebud pinned on his coat. Each one of the buds was put on each one of those coats by some of Farmington's prettiest girls, for Luck, Even, Father Buck was a rose and was proud of it, too, for didn't the sweetest girl in Farmington ask him, with a blush, if she might put one on him? Ever McCausland and a married man at that, wore a bud, but it is safe to say it was discarded before he went home.

Billy Dutch Makes Good.

William Leisnering, better known as "Billy Dutch," the new umpire, has now given an exhibition of what he can do in the games Friday and Saturday. It is freely said everywhere that he is one of the best men ever seen behind an indicator on a Salt Lake diamond. His work has been of the highest order, and for the first time in many years the grand stand has been unable to find fault with his calling of balls and strikes. President Critchlow is to be congratulated in getting so good a man, and the fans only hope that "Billy Dutch" will be able to keep up his good work.

Game Today at Lagoon.

Salt Lake and the Lagoons will meet at Lagoon today. The game will be called at 3:30 p. m. The baseball special leaving the Salt Lake and Ogden depot at 2:30 p. m. Tann will go into the box for Salt Lake, and Lempeke for Lagoon, unless Starkie, the new pitcher, arrives in time.

Hartzell's Release a Mistake.

(Denver Republican.)
President Packard of the Denver nine is scouring the west for a pitcher to help the Denver team out of its present predicament. In the spring he had signed, in addition to the present force, Tann, Schmidt and Hartzell. Schmidt declined to keep to his agreement and the other two were allowed to go to Utah for a year's work in the kindergarten. Hartzell has already proven that his release was a mistake. For he is pitching fine ball, hitting and fielding in elegant shape. Mr. Packard stated yesterday that he believed he had a pitcher landed, although he declined to give out any name.

Girl Breaks a Record.

Elmira, N. Y., June 7.—At the annual field day meet at the Elmira college campus today, Miss Bumiss, Bertha Bergert, 1902, broke the American record for college girls in baseball throwing, throwing her ball 181 feet.

Must Not Play Sunday.

Spokane, Wash., June 7.—The Berkeley baseball team must not play on Sunday. A telegram was received this morning that the faculty of the University of California would not permit Sunday baseball. Tomorrow's game here is canceled.

Dwyer and Kelly Leave.

Dwyer and Kelly, the ex-Lagoon players, left last night for Billings, Mont., where they have signed to play for the remainder of the season. Shuffer, the ex-Lagoon second baseman, is managing the Billings team, and sent for Kelly and Dwyer to come up.

University of Utah Track and Field Athletic Team.

THE season just closed has been one of the most successful in athletics in the history of the University of Utah. For the first time in the history of the state, the local students have been successful in defeating the crack Nevada team, which was accomplished two weeks ago. This victory installed field sports at the local school second only to football, and from now on the sport is expected to make rapid strides until the U. of U. will have a team as strong as any in the intermountain region.

The team disbanded the past week, but before doing so elected Horace Whitney captain for next year. The above is a photo of the team taken just before they disbanded. The members are as follows:

SHOWS UP STRONG.

Many of the local ring followers will remember Bob Thompson, the colored fighter who made this place his home for a number of years. Thompson had a contest with Frank Fields at Oxnard last week, which from all indications was on a par with some of the exhibitions seen in this city the past few months. Here is an account of the fight as seen by a California sporting writer:

"The contest between Frank Fields of Oxnard and Bob Thompson of Los Angeles last night resulted in general dissatisfaction. The mill started at right, and gave promise of being a good one.

"After the second round Fields appeared to be getting a little the better of his opponent. In the fifth Thompson was forced to the ropes twice, and in the sixth he went to the floor, but at the eighth count he was on his feet, and at that instant his second threw the sponge into the ring.

The crowd immediately became excited at this unexpected turn and cried "fight." "Fight." As soon as a bearing could be had Thompson addressed the audience and stated that so far as the money was concerned Fields had fairly won it, but that he would fight him four rounds for honors. However, the affair was over, and a disappointed lot of people left the hall, declaring that it was a fake on the part of Thompson.

Fields is clever and put up a good battle, and would undoubtedly have come off victorious within a few more rounds. This is his sixth contest, and he has never been whipped.

The six-round preliminary between Rodriguez and Silvix, both of this place, resulted in a draw. William Roche acted as referee in both events.

WRESTLERS MATCHED.

Date of Thompson-McLaughlin Bout Set for June 21.

Eugene Thompson, the local wrestling instructor, and McLaughlin, the champion of Montana, yesterday signed articles to meet on the 21st of June. The match will take place at Park City, and will be for the entire gate receipts and a $100 side bet.

This will be the first wrestling match of any importance that has taken place in this state for some time, and it is thought the sport will take well with the public. It is understood that Ross will be on hand to challenge the winner of this bout. As both Thompson and McLaughlin are willing to meet Ross, the chances are that another match will be arranged.

DOINGS AT PARK CITY.

Rowan and Flynn Training for Their Coming Contest.

(Special to The Herald.)
Park City, June 7.—Considerable interest is being taken in the coming bout between Dummy Rowan of Park City and Jim Flynn of Colorado. Both men commenced training Tuesday and are working very hard. Sam Clark is making arrangements to have a special train run from Salt Lake so the sports of that city can have a chance to see the fight.

There is little doubt that a wrestling match will be pulled off in this city in the near future. McLaughlin is still in town and is waiting for all comers.

Deaf Thompson is trying to arrange a contest with Jerry McCarthy, to take place in the near future.

Rogers Wants a Fight.

Pacatello, Ida., June 6.—Sporting Editor Herald: I hereby challenge any man in the northwest at 133 pounds for a fight for the championship. I prefer either Jack Clifford or Buddy King. KID ROGERS.

The Curl.

BACING AT CALDER'S.

Match Events Between Four Murray Horses.

A number of local horsemen were down to Calder's track yesterday to witness the match races between four Murray horses. The first was a harness event between Blue Note and Salts. Blue Note won in three straight heats, the fastest being in 2:33. The other event was a quarter-mile dash between Little Dutch and Pat L. Pat L. won out by three lengths in 24½ seconds.

Deaf Thompson is trying to arrange a contest with Jerry McCarthy, to take place in the near future.
